Next, experience a picturesque transfer through the foothills to Punakha, the olden winter capital of Bhutan. Stop en route at Dochula Pass to see its 108 chortens and take in views of the Himalayas. Descend into Punakha, a subtropical valley filled with rhododendrons, citrus trees and banana plants. During private sightseeing, enjoy peaceful hikes across countryside farming towns, light a butter lamp at a local temple, opt to climb up a mountain for gorgeous panoramic views of the valley, tour the splendid Punakha Dzong, and visit a Buddhist nunnery overlooking the valley. Accommodation will be at a luxurious hotel overlooking the Mo Chhu River set among rice terraces, chili and cabbage fields and traditional Bhutanese farmhouses.

Our trip finishes in Paro, which is an attractive town in a green river valley with a delightful main street brimming with shops and cafes. During our tour in paro, we will visit the National Museum, browse for locally made crafts and Buddhist items, and hike to breathtaking Tiger's Nest, a Cliffside Buddhist monastery that's a highlight of Bhutan.

Also experience a private lesson in archery, Bhutan's national sport. Throughout Bhutan, mountain Sherpa trekking will arrange for you to experience the best the country has to offer. Please let us know your interests so we can customize the tour itinerary properly.
