ITINERARY

Day 01:: Arrive in Kathmandu- Transfer to Hotel- Overnight in stay Kathmandu

Rest assured that upon your arrival at the airport, a warm welcome awaits you from our dedicated representative and experienced driver. They will be there to meet and greet you, ensuring a smooth transition from the airport to your designated hotel. Our attentive team will assist you with the check-in process, ensuring that you settle comfortably into your accommodation.

To ensure you have a clear understanding of your daily activities and make the most of your time in Nepal, we will arrange a convenient meeting at your hotel. During this briefing session, we will provide you with detailed information about your itinerary, answer any questions you may have, and offer valuable insights to enhance your overall experience.

With our dedicated team by your side, you can feel confident that we are fully committed to making your stay in Nepal as enjoyable and hassle-free as possible.

Day 02:: Morning one hour Everest flight and Tour in Kathmandu city. Overnight stay at Hotel

Early in the morning, we will embark on a drive to the Domestic Airport for the exhilarating Everest Views Mountain Flight. This one-hour flight is truly a remarkable experience, allowing visitors with limited time to witness the magnificence of Mt. Everest - the highest peak in the world. In addition to the breathtaking view of Everest, passengers will also be treated to sightings of other majestic Himalayan giants such as Shisha Pangma, Melungtse, ChoOyu, Pumori, Nuptse, Lhotse, and Ama Dablam, among others. This extraordinary experience is sure to leave a lasting impression.

Our first destination on the tour will be Swoyambhunath, a revered Buddhist site that offers a majestic view of the entire Kathmandu valley. The stupa of Swoyambhunath is a symbol of Buddhism and holds great significance. Your knowledgeable guide will provide you with detailed historical and cultural information about this place, enriching your visit.

Following Swoyambhunath, we will visit the Living Goddess home and Kathmandu Durbar Square. This area, known locally as Basantapur Area or Hanuman Dhoka Durbar Square, was once the royal palace. It is a fascinating historical and cultural hub that showcases the grandeur of the past.

Next, we will proceed to Boudhanath Stupa, which is the largest Buddhist stupa in the world. Here, you will have the opportunity to explore the stupa and visit a Buddhist monastery. During the lunch break, you can enjoy a meal at a restaurant that offers a panoramic view of the surrounding area. If the weather permits, you may even catch a glimpse of the nearest mountain of Kathmandu, Ganesh Himal, from the restaurant's vantage point.

After a fulfilling lunch, we will visit the sacred Hindu temple of Pasupatinath. This temple holds great religious significance for Hindus and is a prominent pilgrimage site. Our tour for the day concludes at this point, allowing you the rest of the day to relax or explore on your own.

Day 03:: Drive to Chitwan National Park on the way also visit Manakamana temple

It takes approximately three hours to reach Kurintar by private car. Once we arrive, we embark on a thrilling half-hour cable ride to the renowned Manakamana Temple, where devotees seek blessings from the wish-fulfilling goddess in Nepal. Following our visit, we continue our journey to Chitwan National Park, again by private car. Upon arrival, our driver and guide will escort us to the resort. After enjoying a delightful light lunch, we will participate in a village tour of Chitwan or engage in any other program arranged by the resorts and lodges.

Day 04:: Full day different activities in Chitwan- Overnight stay at resort

After enjoying a delightful breakfast, the jungle activities of the day will begin. In the morning, guests will have the opportunity to embark on a 2-3 hour jungle safari either by riding on elephants or in a jeep, exploring the dense grasslands and observing wildlife in their natural habitat. This grass, commonly referred to as elephant grass, is known for its thickness, reaching heights of 18-20 feet, which makes it an ideal habitat for rhinoceros and other mammals.

Following a satisfying lunch, an exhilarating canoe ride on the Rapti River awaits, offering a chance to explore Chitwan National Park and witness various aquatic animals and wildlife. The canoe used for this activity is a traditional boat crafted by local inhabitants from a single wooden log. It can be enjoyed both in the morning and afternoon, providing opportunities to observe Marsh Mugger and Gharial crocodiles sunbathing on the riverbanks. Additionally, guests will have the privilege of visiting the elephant stables, where a senior naturalist will provide captivating insights into the astonishing and extraordinary behaviors of elephants. This visit may include witnessing the rare sight of elephants bathing. Moreover, visitors will have the chance to explore the Tharu village and interact with the locals.

In the evening, a cultural dance performance showcasing the ethnic traditions of the Terai region will be presented at the Cultural Show Centre, adding to the cultural experience of the guests. Finally, the night will be spent at the finest resort in the area, ensuring a comfortable and unforgettable stay.

Day 05:: Drive to Bandipur from Chitwan- overnight stay at Mountain Lodge

After breakfast, we drive to Bandipur, a typical Nepali village situated midway on the Prithivi Highway between the capital city of Kathmandu and the adventure city of Pokhara. This journey takes approximately 3 hours by car.

Bandipur Bazaar is located on a ridge above the town of Dumre and offers visitors a captivating blend of history, architecture, breathtaking views, magnificent caves, and untouched landscapes. Situated at an altitude of 1030m, Bandipur has been hailed as a natural viewpoint, providing an awe-inspiring panorama of the entire Annapurna Range, as well as the towering peaks of Dhaulagiri, Manaslu (rising above 8,000m), and Langtang, extending all the way to the Marsyangdi Valley, which lies below 500m. In addition to the astonishing views of the Himalayas and the Marsyangdi Valley, a visit to this town offers a unique opportunity to immerse oneself in the timeless Newar cultural traditions that reflect the refined civilization of the Kathmandu Valley.

Day 06: : Drive to Pokhara & half day tour in Pokhara - overnight stay at Hotel

After breakfast, you will drive to the city of Pokhara, known for its lakes, caves, mountains, and many more attractions. The drive takes approximately 2 hours, during which you will pass through rivers, villages, and paddy fields, immersing yourself in the scenic beauty of the surroundings. Once you reach Pokhara, you will check into your hotel. In the afternoon, you can enjoy a boating excursion on the famous Phewa or Fewa Lake of Pokhara. While boating, you will have the opportunity to visit the BARAHI temple, which is situated on Bowen Lake. If the weather is clear, you will be treated to a breathtaking view of Fishtail (known as Machapuchere in Nepali), Annapurna South, and other majestic mountains. In the evening, you can indulge in a cultural dinner experience in the Lakeside area, immersing yourself in the vibrant ambiance and traditions of the region.

Day 07: : Enjoy a full-day city tour of Pokhara. Overnight stay in Hotel at Pokhara

Embark on an early morning drive to the captivating Sarangkot hill (1500M), where panoramic sunrise views await you, revealing the majestic Annapurna, Dhaulagiri, Fishtail, and other stunning mountains. After savoring this awe-inspiring experience, we return to the hotel for a delightful breakfast before embarking on a fascinating tour of Pokhara's highlights.

Our exploration includes the renowned Devi's Fall, the mystical Gupteshwor Cave, the Tibetan Refugee Camp, and the captivating International Mountain Museum. The comprehensive 4-5 hour tour encompasses the most iconic tourist attractions in Pokhara, providing an enriching experience for all.

For those seeking an additional adventure, you have the option to embark on a hike to the Peace Stupa. This scenic hike will lead you to the iconic Peace Stupa, offering panoramic views of Pokhara's stunning landscapes, as well as a serene atmosphere perfect for reflection and tranquility.

As the day draws to a close, immerse yourself in the serene beauty of Lakeside, where you can unwind and appreciate the tranquil ambiance. Indulge in a wonderful dinner, savoring delicious cuisine while reflecting upon the remarkable moments of the day.

Day 08: : Fly to Kathmandu - Explore Patan & Bhaktapur - Drive to Nagarkot

After enjoying a nutritious breakfast, you will be transferred to Pokhara Airport for your return flight to Kathmandu. Upon your arrival at Kathmandu Airport, our experienced tour guide and skilled driver will be ready to accompany you on a captivating tour of Patan City. This city holds the prestigious title of being a UNESCO World Heritage site and is renowned for its exquisite Newari architecture. You will have the opportunity to admire the intricate craftsmanship displayed in the carved wooden windows and latticework throughout the city.

Following the enlightening tour of Patan, we will embark on a scenic drive to Bhaktapur City, which is often referred to as Bhadgaon. Located approximately 10 miles east of Kathmandu, Bhaktapur is steeped in medieval history and was one of the three kingdoms ruled by the Malla dynasty. As we explore this ancient city, you will visit notable attractions such as the Lion Gate, the Picture Gallery, the Golden Gate, and the Palace. These remarkable sites offer glimpses into the remarkable artistic skills of the Newari people.

After immersing ourselves in the rich heritage of Bhaktapur, our journey will continue to Nagarkot. This charming destination is known for its panoramic views of the Himalayan mountain range, making it a favorite spot for nature lovers and photography enthusiasts. With its serene atmosphere and breathtaking vistas, Nagarkot provides the perfect setting to relax and appreciate the beauty of Nepal's natural landscape.

Prepare to be captivated by the cultural treasures and stunning scenery as you embark on this delightful journey through Patan, Bhaktapur, and Nagarkot.

Day 09:: Explore ancient Newari towns of Bungmati, Khokana and Kirtipur before Returning to Hotel

After marveling at the magnificent sunrise view over the majestic Himalayas in Nagarkot, we will proceed to have a delicious breakfast. During this time, our knowledgeable tour guide and skilled driver will be prepared for the day's exploration. Today's itinerary will take us to the ancient towns of Bungmati, Khokana, and Kirtipur before returning to our hotel.

Our first stop will be Bungmati, a traditional Newari village located in the Kathmandu Valley. Bungmati is known for its well-preserved medieval architecture and rich cultural heritage. As we wander through its narrow alleys and ancient courtyards, we will have the opportunity to observe the traditional lifestyle of the local inhabitants and witness the intricate craftsmanship displayed in the intricately carved wooden windows and doors.

Next, we will visit Khokana, another charming Newari village renowned for its mustard oil production. This village has retained its traditional way of life, and you will get a glimpse into the daily activities of the locals, such as the traditional oil pressing process. The narrow streets and rustic houses adorned with terracotta decorations add to the village's old-world charm.

Our final stop for the day will be Kirtipur, a historic hilltop town situated southwest of Kathmandu. Kirtipur holds significant cultural and historical importance, and its ancient temples, palaces, and shrines bear witness to its glorious past. You will have the opportunity to explore the narrow streets and ancient architecture while learning about the town's fascinating history.

After a day filled with exploration and cultural immersion in these ancient towns, we will return to our hotel. The experiences gained from visiting Bungmati, Khokana, and Kirtipur will provide you with a deeper understanding and appreciation of Nepal's rich cultural heritage and the traditional way of life preserved in these captivating towns.

Day 10: : Transfer to Kathmandu International Airport to fly back to Home

You have the morning to enjoy some last-minute shopping, exploring the local markets and discovering unique souvenirs to take back home. Our dedicated driver and airport representative will be at your disposal, ensuring a smooth and punctual journey to the airport.

As you head towards the airport, take a moment to reflect on the incredible experiences you've had during your visit to Nepal.
