After a good night's sleep and enjoying a hearty breakfast, we proceed for our tour of Swayambhunath (popularly known as Monkey Temple) "Swayambhu" means "self-created" and refers to the myth that the hill sprung up suddenly from a vast lake that once covered Kathmandu Valley. After this tour, we drive for a visit to the famous Boudhanath Stupa (said to be the largest in the world) and a significant center of Tibetan culture in Kathmandu. The stupa is designed to be like a giant mandala (a representation of the Buddhist cosmos). After lunch, we return to our hotel to get refreshed then we take our time to prepare for trek.

Day 03:: Transfer to Airport & Fly to Lukla then trek to Phakding (2,652m/8,700ft)

After being well rested after a solid night's sleep, we wake up fresh the next morning, have an early breakfast, and get into our vehicle for a drive to the domestic terminal of Kathmandu airport for an early morning flight to Hillary's Lukla (2,800m/9,186ft), a gateway destination from where our trip commences. After an adventurous scenic 40 minute flight above the stunning green and white mountains, we reach the Tenzing-Hillary Airport at Lukla. Arguably, this is one of the most beautiful sky routes in the world which concludes in a remarkable landing on a hillside surrounded by high mountains peaks. Upon arrival at Lukla, we meet the other crew members and after some sorting and packing and arrangements, we start our trek through the pretty wealthy village of Lukla until we reach Phakding. To assist in acclimatization, we only have a short hike today. However, if you are interested in additional activities we can take a side trip to a nearby monastery. This is our first Overnight in Phakding.

Day 04:: Trek from Phakding to Namche Bazaar [3,440m/11,280 ft]- Approx. 6 hrs (Lodge)

Walking through a beautiful pine forest, the track leads us along the Dudh Koshi River through many suspension bridges, one of which is the famous Hillary Suspension Bridge. First, we catch superb scenes of the glistening Mt. Thamserku (6618m). Through the settlement of Benkar, Chumoa, Monjo, we come to the check post and entrance to Sagarmatha National Park. We pass through the last village of Jorsale before reaching Namche Bazaar. The trail climbs through the forests and bridges until we reach the confluence of the Dudh Koshi and Bhote Koshi rivers. After a final steep ascent of about two hours we get first sight of Mt. Everest peering over the Lhotse-Nuptse ridge.

At this juncture, we stop at Chautara to admire the views. We still need to hike about 1.5 hours to reach Namche Bazaar, a gateway to Mt. Everest and the main trading centre of this region. Overnight in Namche [Las Vegas of the Khumbu] – B. L. D

Day 05:: Hike to Sherpa villages of Khumjung & Khunde then back to Namche.

If we are to hike a few hundred feet upwards during the day, this gives us some useful acclimatization. We go for a stroll down to the Tourist Visitor Center near the Sagarmatha National Park headquarters and observe a lot of history related to the first Everest ascenders, Sherpa culture and get some interesting insights into the plant and animal life of the Everest region.

For your information, Today Our Sherpa guide will take you on a beautiful excursion to the wonderful Sherpa villages Khumjung & Khunde to get better acclimatize in high altitude. Khumjung and Khunde village are located at the altitude of 3900m and are home to the largest community of Sherpa. If time permits, our guide will also take you to Everest View Hotel. which is a Japanese design to build a deluxe hotel with great views of the highest mountains on the planet. You will return to Namche Bazaar in the late afternoon. you will acclimatize better if you expose yourself to higher altitudes but return to a lower altitude to sleep.

The Khumjung valley is encompassed by the snowy peaks of Kongde and Thamserku and the holy peak of Khumbila hosts a well known monastery that is also home to the yeti scalp. We visit Hillary School which is at the same site. After enjoying lunch and spending some time in Syangboche, we trot back down to Namche Bazaar.

Day 06:: TREK TO PHORTSE VILLAGE | Less-Traveled Route

After enjoying a hearty breakfast at our lodge in Namche, we set out on our trek between 7:00 and 7:30 AM. Guided by our experienced Sherpa, we choose a quieter, less-traveled path toward our next destination. The day's trek covers a distance of 7 to 9 kilometers, typically taking 4 to 6 hours.

Leaving Namche Bazaar, the trail gradually ascends through vibrant rhododendron forests and charming Sherpa villages. As we progress, we're rewarded with awe-inspiring views of Ama Dablam, Thamserku, and the mighty Everest.

Our journey culminates in the peaceful village of Phortse, nestled in the heart of the Himalayas at around 3,810 meters. This serene Sherpa village offers breathtaking panoramas of Ama Dablam and Thamserku, making it an ideal spot to relax and take in the stunning surroundings after a day of trekking.

Day 07:: HIKE TO AMA DABLAM B.C & RETURN TO PANGBOCHE

Your beautiful day begins after a restful night at our local Sherpa lodge in Phortse Village. We'll start our trek at 7:30 AM, heading from Phortse to Pangboche, where you'll be treated to stunning views of the Khumbu Valley. Along the way, you'll enjoy sights like the Imja Khola river, Tengboche Monastery, and the impressive Thamserku, which rises majestically from the valley at 6,608 meters (21,680 feet).

After approximately three hours of hiking, we'll reach the charming Sherpa village of Pangboche. After taking a break for lunch, we'll embark on a hike to Ama Dablam Base Camp. We'll take our time to soak in the breathtaking scenery at the base camp before we begin our return journey to Pangboche for the night. Though we'll say goodbye to this spectacular location, the memories of this extraordinary day will stay with us, adding to our excitement for the adventures yet to come on this remarkable journey.

Day 08:: TREK TO DINGBOCHE | High-altitude acclimatization hike and back to Dingboche

After a hearty breakfast and a refreshing rest in Pangboche, we're ready to hit the trail once again, this time heading toward Dingboche. This segment of our trek typically lasts about three hours as we ascend to an elevation of 4,410 meters (14,469 feet). Along the way, we'll pass through the lovely village of Shomare, where you can enjoy stunning views of the surrounding peaks, particularly the breathtaking Ama Dablam. Be sure to take a moment to appreciate the scenery, capture some photos, and immerse yourself in the beauty of the Himalayas.

Upon reaching Dingboche, we'll enjoy a warm and satisfying lunch to recharge our energy. Following our meal, our knowledgeable Sherpa guide will take us on a brief hike around the village to help us acclimatize to the higher altitude. It's essential to pace ourselves and allow our bodies to adjust, ensuring a safe and enjoyable trekking experience as we continue our adventure.

Day 09:: Trek to Chhukung [4,743m/15,562ft] hike to Chhukung ri & back to Chhukung- Lodge

Our acclimatizing gets a further boost with our hike to Chhukung village. we then do a steep climb up to Chhukung Ri at 5550m and as we top it with gasping breath we soon realize the gritty climb was worth the go; the rewards are as lovely as it comes with the natural beauty that greets us for our efforts, the jaw-dropping vistas of Cho Oyu at 8201m, Pumori at 7161m, the gigantic Lhotse wall at 8400m, Amadablam at 6812m, Makalu at 8481m & Baruntse at 7129m all put together put our hearts on top gear as it skips a beat while watching these massive peaks, and to think and wonder our fellow beings have peaked at these mountains is more than enough to prepare us for our own challenges in the days ahead...we literally savor the might and love of God in his master creations he made for us to enjoy, and we thank him for his blessings.

Day 10:: Trek over Khongma La Pass [5,535 m/18,159 ft] & to Lobuche (4,930m/16175 ft)

On our way from Chhukung, our trail goes up over loose scree as we make a beeline for the Khongma La; on reaching the top, we encounter cairns bound in prayer flags whispering odes of prayers for those who lost their lives, marks of the pass. Behind us is the landscape of icy lakes ahead down which is the Khumbu Glacier. Our final descent is a tough phase which tests our patience in the trek today. After passing some teahouses on our way to Lobuche, we climb higher onto the terminal moraine of the Khumbu glacier, passing a row of stone monuments built in memory of Sherpas who have died on mountaineering expeditions to Mt Everest. From here the trail drops and follows the west side of the valley to Lobuche. The sunset on Nuptse from here is a breathless experience. As we climb the moraine on the far side, the trail turns north through Khumbu Glacier and takes us to Lobuche for a well earned rest tonight. B. L. D

Day 11:: Trek to Everest base camp (5400m) and back to Gorakshep (5170m) - 7/8 hrs

A real early start is required to reach the Everest Base Camp. It takes several hours as the trail weaves its way through ice pinnacles and past the crevasses of the Khumbu Glacier. After a brief lunch and rest, we take the trail to Everest Base Camp through the once vast Gorak Shep Lake. Continuing straight ahead, we come through the Indian army mountaineers' memorials. Only upon reaching the Everest Base Camp do we really appreciate the Everest climbers who brave the risky route through the Khumbu icefall. Mountaineer's tents stand out in bright colors against the monotony of gray surroundings (especially in the spring). Nuptse, Khumbustse and Pumori are the mountains we can view from the base camp. On the return leg, we can take a higher route to get a grand view of the Khumbu icefall and the route to the South Col. We return to Gorakshep for a restful night. B. L. D

Day 12:: Morning hike to Kalapattar [5,545 M/18,193 ft] & trek to Dzongla- Lodge [B/L/D]

Today is the pinnacle point of our trip. We start early in the morning after some cuppers to catch the dramatic views from Kalapattar witnessing the first light of day shining on Mt. Everest. However, we need to get prepared for an early morning, dark and cold temperature of approx (-10 to -14 C) departure beforehand. Further, there is always the potential for chilly winds which are quite common. Familiar peaks such as Lingtren, Khumbutse, Changtse tower to the east even as Everest begins to reveal itself emerging between the west shoulder crest and Nuptse. During the ascent to Kalapattar we can pause to catch our breath at several terrific view points to snap pictures. After several hours of ascent, we will peak out at Kala Patthar. From this juncture, we scramble to climb the rocky outcrop near to the summit marked by cairns and prayer flags. As we reach the top, we sit on the Kalapattar where our eyes focus taking in the mind-boggling Himalayan Panorama, wandering from one mighty massif to another. We click as many pictures as we can and take in views with our mind's eye to last for a lifetime. From here we take the path to Dzongla; after crossing a stream we come through a fork and later curving round to the wide gravelly river bed of the stream. As it flows southwestward, the trail runs across it and climbs the ridge ahead. From the grassy ridge ahead, as the trail runs across to southeast from where we can see soaring heights of Ama Dablam and Kangtega-Thamserku while Taboche looms highly ahead. Pheriche village is visible down in the distance. We will also have visibility of a hillock in Chukpi Lhara and its memorials and the lodges of Dugla. As the ridge veers northward, the vast Chola Lake spreads below Mt. Cholatse. The lake stays with us over a long stretch until we descend to a wide basin. The trail climbs up a spur and descends steeply to another broad basin. After an hour walk transverse from the basin and shortly after crossing a wobbly bridge, we reach Dzongla. We spend the night in one of the local lodges at Dzongla (only very basic lodges are available hereabouts). B. L. D

Day 13:: Trek over Chola Pass [5,420m/17,782 ft]/ trek to Thangnag (4700 m) - 6/7 hrs: Lodge [B/L/D]

We get up early in the morning to get out of our lodge to be greeted by the mesmerizing sight of Cholatse looming over. Today is going to be one of the gritty days of our trip. The walk begins as we transverse through a spur extending westward from Dzongla. The path descends to a basin across which meanders a murmuring stream crusted with ice at places. In about an hour, we reach the top of the basin readying for the triumph on ChoLa. As we gain height, the view back gets increasingly more captivating; the Chola Lake begins to appear and the Ama Dablam in its pyramidal manifestation presides over a range of mountains on the south as Cholatse soars on the west. Climbing the incline is not easy; it is steep, but made worse by boulders over some of which we will have to scramble. We need to be alert as rocks can be glazed by ice. The final climb to the ChoLa can be a little tricky as the trail curves round the bergschrund. Upon reaching the top, we see prayer flags, strung across cairns, flapping in the strong wind. Scenery of imposing peaks in all directions is breathtaking. Although long, the path leading down to Dragnak can be easily made out from the pass because it is just decent but can be hazardous if rocks are glazed by ice, a bit of cautiousness is needed. We reach Dragnak, a rather more considerable hamlet with a small village. Stepping out of the settlement, we are greeted by fabulous mountain views. The trail brings us to the Ngozumpa glacier edge after short walk, which is longest glacier in Nepal. Reaching the other side of the glacier, we get views of the second of the Gokyo lakes on the series of six lakes. A short distance away is the third Gokyo Lake. On the edge of this lake stands the village of Gokyo but before this, we finally give rest to our weary bodies in Thangnag for the night. B. L. D

Day 14:: Trek to Gokyo(4,750M/15,584 ft)-Approx. 4-5 hrs walk overnight stay in Lodge.

After enjoying blissful night of rest, we leave Dragnak and head for the lakes at Gokyo. We follow a very scenic path to Pangka and then descend slightly, following one of the melting rivers which flow down the west side of the Ngozumpa Glacier. We climb a steep rocky incline into the valley by the side of the glacier, passing the first of the holy lakes. We soon arrive at the second lake, crossing the path which heads across the glacier to Cho La - our route to Thame and Namche, later in the trek. The third lake is known as Dudh Pokhari (Milk Lake) and on its eastern shore is the settlement of Gokyo. Walking by the side of the lake, the scenery is splendid with the summits of Cho Oyu and Gyachung Kang reflected in its emerald green waters. Overnight by the side of the Gokyo lakes - B. L. D

Day 15:: Hike to Gokyo Ri (5,483M/17,989 ft) and back to Gokyo - approx. 4/5 hrs Lodge [B/L/D]

Heady Gokyo Ri looms above the village on the northern edge of the lake. We leave camp just after first light, following a steep path up the hillside. As we climb, the summits of Everest, Lhotse and Makalu slowly come into view and the sight from the summit of Gokyo Ri itself, is said to be one of the premium sights to behold in the Everest region - some say it is even better than that from Kala Pattar. After lunch it is a short walk back to Gokyo for our overnight. B. L. D

Day 16:: Trek over Renjo La pass (5,340 m/ 17,520 ft) & trek to Lungden. Approx. 7-8 hrs

Its important that we make a break at dawn today as we have to trace our trail up to Lunde after conquering of Renjo La. As there is no alternative to Lunde for overnight today, we need to start early. Down from the Gokyo

Valley, we leave the main trail and turn to Renjo La trail by Dudh Pokhari. After about 3 hours, we gain the Renjo La where a dazzling vista awaits. The Everest itself, Lhotse, Cholatse and Taboche can be seen shining in the sun. Views from Renjo La are much like that from Gokyo Ri with third Gokyo Lake and Gokyo Village beneath the gray smear of Ngozumpa Glacier. Continuing on from the pass, the trail winds down a stone staircase and then scrambles over loose scree to reach the south bank of a small lake called the Angladumba Tsho. The presence of ice on the trail while descending down can make our descent a bit dangerous. Along the way we see Relama Tsho and Renjo Lake. However, we walk down through narrow valley clogged with giant boulders to Lunde where there is a support Lodge but it can be closed often. If this turns out to be the case, We walk further for another hour from Lunde to get to Marlung on the east bank of the Bhote Kosi. Overnight at Lunde or Marlung - B. L. D

Day 17:: Trek to Thame (3,820 meters /12,533 feet)-approx. 4-5 hrs Stay at Lodge

From Lungden, the route turns west and the trail is almost level as we head up the Bhote Kosi Valley, once a popular trading route into Tibet. Along the way we pass many prayer flags and mani stones, all pinpointing to the Tibetan Buddhist culture of this area. After descending to the Bhote Kosi the trail climbs steeply to Thame. From here there are good views of the peaks of Teng Kangpoche and Kwangde. To the north is the Nangpa La, the pass leading to Tibet. Thame Gompa is situated above the village overlooking the valley and is the site for the famous spring celebrations of the Mani Rimdu festival. We crash out in Thame for the night. B. L. D

Day 18:: Trek to Namche (3,440 meters/11,286 feet))-approx. 4-5 hrs Stay at Lodge

Today, we embark on a picturesque journey from Thame village to Namche Bazaar, where every step reveals the grandeur of the Himalayas. The trail starts with a gentle ascent through lush pine and rhododendron forests, offering a refreshing introduction to the trek. As the path unfolds, be prepared for awe-inspiring panoramas of Ama Dablam, Thamserku, and Kangtega.

Traversing through Sherpa hamlets like Thamo and Samde, connect with the warmth of the locals and find rest amidst the tranquility of the mountains. A highlight of the trek is the visit to Thame Gompa, an ancient Buddhist monastery steeped in history dating back to the 16th century.

Navigate suspension bridges and conquer steep hills, and soon, the vibrant hub of Namche Bazaar unveils itself. This bustling market town is not just a gateway to the Khumbu region; it's a vibrant tapestry of culture and commerce. Immerse yourself in the lively markets, explore local museums, or simply savor moments of relaxation while soaking in the unparalleled mountain views. The trek from Thame village to Namche Bazaar promises a harmonious blend of natural splendor, cultural enrichment, and exhilarating adventure. Stay in the best lodge in Namche and enjoy the hot shower, hot chocolate, and cakes.

Day 19:: Trek to Lukla (2,860 meters/9,383 feet). Approximately, a 6-7 hrs trek-lodge.

The trek from Namche Bazaar to Lukla unfolds in the mesmerizing landscapes of the Himalayan mountain range. Starting from Namche Bazaar, the descent winds through dense rhododendron and pine forests, introducing trekkers to charming villages and the unique culture of the locals.
