This tranquil valley ridge hiking on the rims of the ancient capital of Nepal takes you through quiet forests and bustling villages in the Shivapuri Valley and then up to Shivapuri Hill at (2729m), the highest point on this trek. And then at the peak of the Shivapuri hillock, it's a mountainous galore of over 60 soaring mountain peaks, which include Manaslu, Boudha Himal, Ganesh Himal, Langtang range, Dorje Lakpa, Shisapangma, and Gaurishankar, your heart skips a beat with what you see from here. We then gently hike up to the quiet little hill resort of Nagarkot, a key scenic location considered to be one of the best on the ridges of the ancient Kathmandu Valley with superior views of the great Himalayan peaks.

Most tourists making a beeline to Nepal head into the mountains seemingly, with blinkers on, and don't seem to realize that a trip above 3000m could actually start right from the rims of the Kathmandu valley where there's so much to enjoy besides preparing for the larger trip; the hiking around Kathmandu valley ridge would be ideal to start with the family or friends and then a second visit could be done for the higher altitudes. This sojourn makes up a 5-day sublime hike encompassing the hills of Kathmandu valley and grandstand spots with box office views of the Himalaya Mountains. The landscapes travel as far as the eyes can see with Manaslu and Annapurnas in the west to horizons of the pyramid of Mt. Everest, Number Himal, and Karyolung in the east. The views are wonderfully dissimilar from each destination on the trek from Nagarkot to Lakuri Bhanjyang where each spot gives us distinct angles and perceptions on the Himalayas within Nepal. It's a great experience...

Our vacation also includes visiting religious and heritage sites of the Kathmandu valley and walking into less frequented rural areas that have ochre-colored farmhouses, our hiking and trekking takes us through rice terraces, orange orchards, and shady forests that engulf us with greenery. Our brilliant gentle trek wraps up with a downhill trail to the aged town of Bhaktapur not far from Kathmandu valley. Your nights on the trail are spent in real comfortable hotels/ resorts and your luggage to the next hotel will be with you in a private car. We also offer options to use our vehicle if you prefer to drive sections of the trail rather than hiking it down each day; we do this especially for those with kids and pretty small to hike for several hours each day. Mountain Sherpa Trekking & Expeditions is a seasoned operator who thinks of most things suitable for a vacation more than others do, your comforts and safety are of vital importance to us...

Day 02:: Full Day sightseeing of Kathmandu city- Overnight stay at hotel

After a good night's sleep and enjoying a hearty b/fast, we proceed for our tour of Basantapur Durbar Square. Recorded by UNESCO as a cultural World Heritage site, Kathmandu Durbar Square is a bunch of medieval temples, palaces, courtyards, and streets that date back to the 12th and 18th centuries. within this square we will find Hanumandhoka Palace Museum, Taleju Temple, Kumari Ghar (House of the Living Goddess), Kasthamandap and other temples and buildings as old as the city itself; from here we head for a tour of the famous Boudhanath Stupa (said to be the largest in the world) and a major center of Tibetan culture in Kathmandu. The stupa is designed to be like a giant mandala (a representation of the Buddhist cosmos).

We next drive down to Swayambhunath popularly known as Monkey Temple "Swayambhu" means "self-created" and refers to the myth that the hill sprung up suddenly from a great lake that once covered Kathmandu Valley. Our next destination is Pashupatinath Temple. This temple is dedicated to the Hindu deity Lord Shiva and is said to be the holiest Hindu shrine in Nepal. Hereabouts we see a cremation ritual of Hindus at 'Aryaghat', the cremation area of the temple. This cremation site is used for the once royal family of Nepal and also for the simple Nepalese people who live within the country. We then wrap up our Heritage tour with a trip to Patan which is one of the three medieval cities in Kathmandu and a destination for connoisseurs of great arts. We take a tour of Patan Durbar Square - a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Located in the square is the Patan Museum (originally a Malla palace), Krishna Mandir- a stone temple of Lord Krishna with its 21 spires and art that displays scenes from the Mahabharata and Ramayana epics, this includes the Royal Bath or 'Tushahity' and the nearby Hindu and Buddhist temples. We return back to our hotel, refresh, do some shopping, have an early supper, and retire to bed, most probably. Breakfast

Nagarkot at (2175m.) is by far one of the most loved destinations for honeymooners and those who love the serene quietness that comes with nature. On a clear weather day, the Himalaya ranges stretching from Dhaulagiri in the west all the way past Everest to Kanchanjunga in the east emerges from the darkness to greet the happy visitors with the setting and rising of the sun from Nagarkot, which is a spectacular magical sight from this peaceful hill resort with its gracious majesty and beauty. Its Newar community is known for its artistry, and most of the real old houses hereabouts feature carved window frames throughout the town. There are many temples and sacred statues that speak of the religious feelings of the people in this hamlet. We spend the night at a resort in quiet Dhulikhel.

Day 06: : Trek Balthali Village via Namobuddha – 5-6 hrs- Eco Lodge- all Meals included

After having breakfast with a stunning Himalayas view, we start our walk downhill to the beautiful villages via Namobuddha. We stop for lunch Namobuddha. A short walk above the stupa is the newly built Tibetan Buddhist monastery perched on the hilltop. From here, continue walking through fields and orchards to the quiet village of Balthali. Here again, there are amazing views of the mountains, farmland, and villages.
