Jambay Lhakhang Drup festival is a five-day occasion majestically held around the attractive valley of Bumthang in Bhutan. It is one of Bhutan's main festivals to celebrate an establishment of Jambay Lhakhang temple in 7th century and also to honor Guru Rinpoche. During this 10-day Jambay Lhakhang Drup festival trip, you can enjoy many fascinating festivities like traditional mark dances, naked dances, as well as the highlighted fire blessing.

In adding to the festival occasion, you will also visit the main cities of Bhutan, like Paro, Thimphu, Punakha valley, and see beautiful monasteries and temples including, Chimi Lhakhang, Punakha Dzong & Tashichho Dzong etc. Also, you will relish the fine natural scenery of Phobjikha Valley and Bumthang valley. Last but not the least, you will not miss the well-liked hike experience to Taksang Lhakhang (Tiger's Nest), the holiest temple in Bhuta
