Trip Style: Cultural Tour

Trip Difficulty: Leisure

Luxury Kathmandu & Lhasa private tour is the perfect combination of culture and history in Kathmandu plus mysterious Tibetan culture. We start our trip in Kathmandu, the endlessly charming capital of Nepal. During private guided sightseeing with your professional guide and driver, walk through the energetic backstreets of Old Kathmandu to see workshops, local markets, and active Buddhist and Hindu temples. Discover the cultural tourist attractions in the several UNESCO World Heritage-listed monument zones around the city and in the neighboring Kathmandu Valley.

We also visit former royal capital of Patan and Bhaktapur to see beautiful traditional brick buildings with finely carved wooden windows. We explore former palace, Patan Museum, traditional art. You can browse special woodwork and ceramics created by local artistes in Bhaktapur.

Continue drive to Dwarika’s Resort Dhulikhel, a lavish retreat in the forested hills overlooking the Kathmandu Valley. Enjoy panoramic sunrise and sunset views above the high peaks of the Himalayas. You can experience such as hiking, yoga, meditation or walk and meet local villagers.

Finally, we flight to Lhasa from Kathmandu, Tibet, the "rooftop of the world," and discover this sky-high Tibetan city (elevation: 11,450 feet) that is steeped in Buddhist religion and occupied with monasteries and palaces. During your flexible guided tour with our local Tibetan guide you visit all the interesting places of Lhasa including Potala Palace. After spending 3 full days in Lhasa we fly back to Kathmandu, Nepal to fly back to home.
