Day 02:: Full Day Kathmandu city Tour/Sightseeing - hotel accommodation & breakfast included

Today we visit Kathmandu valleys most spectacular and important sites and some vibrant, colourful markets, we can provide a cultural guide as well as transportation but there would be a supplement charge. With a meld of three ancient capitals and their associated palaces, temples and markets of Kathmandu has a lot to offer culturally and historically. However, we’re mindful not to overload you so we will ensure the day has a good balance between sightseeing, exploring and relaxation time. The exact itinerary may change depending on the local conditions but we shall most likely visit:

- Pashupatinath, one of the most important temples in South Asia to the Hindu God, Lord Shiva;
- One of the three Durbar (Palace) Squares, a complex of palaces and temples which was formally the social, religious and administrative focal point of the ancient city
- Boudhnnanath Stupa, a wonderful Buddhist site centred on a huge Stupa topped with the all-seeing eyes. If possible we’ll come here in the early evening to soak up the atmosphere of hundreds of Tibetan and Sherpa peoples walking their devotional khora.
