Tharpu Chuli (Tent Peak) lies at an altitude of 5,663m and is set over the Annapurna Valley standing in front of the most renowned peaks on the earth named Machhapuchhre which means fishtail. Tharpu Chuli is occasionally acknowledged as 'Tent Peak' because of its form. The way we go up is taking up the North West point, which holds snow and ice climbing risks at Alpine PD or Scottish Grade II. You will enjoy the mountainous setting's awesome sight including the two gigantic peaks- Mt. Dhaulagiri (8167m) and Mt. Annapurna (8091 m). And, of course passing by the best known viewpoint – Poon Hill will be one the unforgettable experiences since it bestows magnificent views of Annapurna South, Annapurna I, II, III, and IV, Lamjung Himal, and more

To begin the Tharpu Chuli (Tent Peak) Climbing, we will depart from Kathmandu and take up a flight to Pokhara and drive to Phedi from where our real walking begins. We will then reach at Annapurna Base Camp lying at an elevation of 4,130 m. And, rest for a day to get accustomed with the environment. Then, passing through the glacial moraine we will get to Tharpu Chuli low camp before reaching Tharpu Chuli Base Camp. Also, we will continue our expedition climbing further and install high camp at 5,000m. Leaving behind the high camp, we will trek on the route and traverse the glacier and ascend a snow slope to arrive at the North West edge which is wide at first but turns out to be knife-edged while moving to the summit of the Tharpu Chuli. The summit bestows awesome views of the gigantic Himalayas.

This 21-days Tharpu Chuli (Tent Peak Climbing) designed by Mountain Sherpa Trekking is a wonderful option to walk into gigantic Himalayan world. Also, you will get to enjoy the ethnic warmth with the cultural glory of Nepal's ethnic inhabitants. Moreover, you will pass by elegant waterfalls, settlements, and the rhododendron woods that blossom beautifully during the springtime. If you are seeking for getting to the heart of the Annapurna, connect with us on what swears to be a stunning voyage.

DURATION: 20 days
