Bungee Jump in Nepal: Nepal's first bungee jumping site is situated 160m over the wild Bhote Kosi River. It is located close to the Nepal-Tibet border, a three- hour bus ride from Kathmandu. As of now, there is only one agency offering this sport. The jump, at 160m, was designed by one of New Zealand's leading bungee consultants, and is operated by some of the most experienced jump masters in the business. It's mishap-proof. The agency takes safety very seriously & has become amazingly popular. People come to do the must-do bungy jump, and fall in love with the area and want to explore more. A day's canyoning is the perfect companion to the instant adrenaline of the bungy.

Nepal's Hidden Canyons: Canyoning is an amazing full body and mind experience that enables you to explore some of the last forbidden places in the Himalayas. Cannoning is becoming part of a river, following its flow over natural obstacles. The Last Resort has a couple of the most beautiful canyons in the Himalaya – you can see that in the pictures! With wetsuits, harnesses and with the aid of ropes, your guides will help you navigate this breathtaking journey.

White Water Rafting: Tumbling from the snow-capped peaks of Tibet, the Bhote Kosi river provides some of the most exciting rafting and kayaking in Nepal, and is quite possibly one of the best short river trips offered anywhere in the world.
